SECOND JOHN EXPOSITIONAL NOTES

Exposi	The truth is the purpose of the epistle (1–3).
II.	Holding to the truth results in loving others (4–6).
	A. When believers hold to the truth it causes rejoicing for their leaders (4).
	B. When believers hold to the truth they will love one another (5–6).
III.	Holding to the truth results in protecting the community from error (7–11).
	A. Any teaching that denies Jesus is the Christ is heresy (7).
	B. Believers must reject any teaching that denies the Son (8–9).

C. Believers must reject any teacher that denies the Son (10–11).

IV. Conclusion: Those who hold to the truth have a close bond (12–13).